DIVISION MEMORANDUM
No. 248, s. 2026

CONDUCT OF SCHOOL VISITS FOR THE MONITORING OF 2026 SUMMER REMEDIATION PROGRAM

TO: Assistant Schools Division Superintendents
Chief-Curriculum Implementation Division (CID)
Chief-School Governance and Operations Division (SGOD)
Education Program Supervisors
Public Schools District Supervisors
Public Elementary and Secondary School Heads
All Others Concerned

1. In reference to DepEd Order No. 010 s. 2026, entitled "Guidelines for the Implementation of the 2026 Summer Remediation Programs", the Department of Education continues to address learning gaps through the ARAL Summer Program, Summer Academic Remediation Program, and Senior High School Remediation Program from May 6, 2026 to June 2, 2026.
2. In line with this, this Office through the collaboration of Curriculum Implementation Division, Schools Governance and Operations Division, and Office of the Schools Division Superintendent shall conduct school monitoring visits across all districts.
3. Specifically, the monitoring visits aim to determine the following:
 - a. The instructional and learning materials being utilized and the corresponding sources of procurement or funding;
 - b. the number of DepEd tutors and external tutors assigned per school;
 - c. the compensation arrangements and payment mechanism tutors;
 - d. the actual attendance of learners during program implementation; and
 - e. other necessary information related to the implementation of the ARAL Summer Program.
4. The monitoring Officials shall coordinate with the concerned districts and schools regarding the schedule of visits as indicated in the Enclosure. The Public Schools District Supervisors shall also monitor in their respective Sub-Offices.
5. This Memorandum serves as travel order of the monitors.
