1. The ABS-CBN LINGKOD KAPAMILYA FOUNDATION, INC. (formerly ABS-CBN Foundation, Inc.), is a socio-civic organization and heavily involved in public service campaigns through its programs in child welfare (Bantay Bata 163), environment protection (Bantay Kalikasan), disaster risk reduction, relief operations and rehabilitation (Sagip Kapamilya) and education (Programa Genio), and community development empowerment (Integrated Area Development).
2. ALKFI through its Bantay Bata 163 program is committed to improve the quality of its services, by leveraging partnerships in protecting the children and their rights through implementation of programs, projects, and services specifically, the Advocacy Program. The Advocacy Program is part of the community-based services of Bantay Bata 163 Program of ALKFI that aims to raise awareness among children, parents, and other stakeholders on children's rights and other relevant issues that affect them.
3. In line with this, DepEd SDO Batangas through School Governance Operations Division (SGOD) – Learner Rights and Protection, agreed to work together on Child Safe Schools Project, a project of Bantay Bata 163 to protect children's rights, and to promote and raise awareness on child protection.
4. Listed below are the recipient schools for the said project. School partners will identify their teachers, parents and community that will undergo onsite and online trainings and workshops. See attached Activity Matrix for reference.
