2. Research Entry Requirements:

- a. All research entries should include the following: (1) Research Plan, (2) Project Data Logbook, and (3) Research Paper with proper format. Refer to Appendix 2 of the handbook for the contents and description of each form. The format for the innovation expo is described in Appendix 5. They must also attach the necessary ISEF Forms required in their projects. The copy of the handbook can be accessed at <https://bit.ly/SMTF-Handbook>.
- b. The Tuklas Display Board must adhere to the format and safety guidelines described in Appendix 3
- c. In addition to the required documents, each entry must submit a 3- to 5-minute video on or before August 20, 2026, at 5:00 PM via email to emerson.dalangan@deped.gov.ph. The video file shall be named using the assigned entry code. For example: SIE-I-01.mp4.

3. Presentation Guidelines:

- a. Participants are required to prepare a 5-10 minute presentation to showcase their research findings and innovations.
- b. The student researchers must be in their formal attire during the conduct of DSTF.
- c. Presentation times will be assigned, and participants should be prepared to present during their designated slots.
- d. Participants must be ready to answer questions and provide explanations during the presentation.

4. Evaluation and Judging:

- a. A panel of qualified judges will evaluate the research entries and presentations.
- b. Judges' decisions are final and not subject to appeal.

5. Awards and Recognition:

- a. Awards will be given to outstanding participants in various categories. The first-place winners will represent the division in the Regional Science and Technology Fair.
- b. Special awards and recognitions may also be given for exceptional achievements or contributions.

6. Disqualification:

- a. Participants found to have plagiarized or misrepresented their work may be disqualified from the competition.
- b. Participants must follow all rules and guidelines outlined in the mechanics and any additional instructions provided by the organizing committee.
