2. This activity aims to:
  - a. enhance the skills of the campus journalists and school paper advisers in different categories;
  - b. apply competencies in oral and written communication;
  - c. promote fair and ethical use of media as tenets of responsible journalism;
  - d. foster camaraderie and enrich learning experiences through healthy and friendly activities; and
  - e. prepare the campus journalists for higher-level competitions.
3. The participants to this activity are the top three (3) winners in individual events, and the qualifiers in group events. Refer to the enclosures.
4. The school paper advisers/coaches who are not included in the list for individual categories, but participated in SY 2023-2024 Division Schools Press Conference (DSPC) are requested to attend the cliniquing in December 2023.
5. The food of the trainers, division staff and members of the Technical Working Group (TWG), honoraria of trainers, supplies and other expenses relative to the conduct of Division Journalism Academy shall be charged to division journalism funds subject to usual accounting and auditing rules and procedures.
6. Similarly, the expenses of the campus journalists and school paper advisers for food and transportation shall be charged to local/school/journalism funds/school MOOE subject to usual accounting and auditing rules and procedures.
7. Transportation expenses of the division TWG shall be charged to local/school funds/MOOE subject to usual accounting and auditing rules and procedures.
8. The learner-participants are advised to bring parental consent, necessary materials and equipment needed in the training.
9. The teachers and other personnel involved on the conduct of different activities during Saturdays/vacation shall be given service credits/compensatory time off (CTO) based on DO 53, S. 2003 - Updated Guidelines on Grant of Vacation Service Credits to Teachers Amended by DO 84, S. 2003 – Addendum to DepEd Order No. 53, S. 2003 (Updated Guidelines on Grant of Vacation Service Credits to Teachers), which states in paragraph 4.11. “attendance/ participation in special DepEd projects and activities which are short-term in duration such as English, Science and Math Mentors’ Training, curriculum writing workshop, planning workshop, etc., if such are held during the summer vacation or during weekends”.
