12th DE LA SALLE MODEL UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE

The De La Salle Model United Nations Community (DLSMUNCOM) will hold its 12th DLSMUN at the Teresa Yuchengco Auditorium, De La Salle University-Manila, on April 23–25, 2026.

Over the years, DLSMUN has established itself as a distinguished three-day platform dedicated to bringing together secondary and tertiary learners from across the country. Delegates from both public and private institutions engage in meaningful dialogue and negotiation, collaborating to develop sustainable solutions to pressing global issues through research and resolution writing.

Model United Nations (MUN), which helps explain the value of this gathering, is an academic simulation of the UN's proceedings where students represent different countries and discuss important global issues related to the 17 Sustainable Development Goals. Through this activity, MUN bridges classroom learning with real-world challenges.

The Conference aims to challenge students intellectually while cultivating them as future leaders and catalysts for positive change who can contribute meaningfully within their communities, across the nation, and on the international stage.

For registration and other information, interested participants may visit the following links:

- Delegate and Observer Registration: <https://tinyurl.com/2v93wf3h>
