GUIDELINES FOR RDC RECOGNITION, CITATION, AND AWARD SYSTEM

RATIONALE

The Regional Development Council (RDC) is the primary institution mandated to coordinate and set the direction of all efforts toward the socioeconomic development of the CALABARZON region. Aligned with its Revised Ground Rules and Regulations, the RDC grants awards to exemplary and outstanding accomplishments of RDC members and individuals or groups from CALABARZON.

OBJECTIVE

The RDC recognition, citation, and award (RDC-RCA) system aims to recognize RDC members and individuals and groups from CALABARZON for their exemplary performance and outstanding contribution to achieving the region's development goals stipulated in the Regional Development Plan (RDP). It also serves as a mechanism to commend those who served the RDC.

100 SCOPE

The recognition covers individuals or groups residing in or organizations operating within CALABARZON region and all RDC members, including members of its committees. The award does not intend to duplicate other awards given by agencies or institutions in the region.

CATEGORIES AND FORM OF AWARD IV.

A. Serbisyo Parangal ng CALABARZON

The Serbisyo Parangal ng CALABARZON is an annual award to honor individuals or organizations whose initiatives have significantly contributed to the socioeconomic advancement of the CALABARZON region in alignment with the CALABARZON RDP. This recognition encompasses efforts from both RDC and non-RDC members. The evaluation and selection process shall be conducted by the RDC-RCA Technical Working Group (TWG), which chooses one individual and one organization winner each from both RDC and non-RDC members for endorsement to the Sectoral Committee on Macroeconomy and Development Administration (SCMDA). Detailed guidelines for the Serbisyo Parangal ng CALABARZON can be found in Annex A.

CONFERMENT OF AWARD V.

CALABARZON RDC will observe the following the schedule in conferring the awards.	the scriedule in conferring th

	Schedule RDC Full Council Meeting RDC Full Council Meeting RDC Week or Fourth Quarter RDC Full Council Meeting

VI. EVALUATION TECHNICAL WORKING GROUP

The RDC-RCA Technical Working Group (TWG) shall be created under the SCMDA and will be responsible in evaluating the Lingkod RDC and Serbisyo Parangal nominations. The TWG shall be composed of the heads of regional offices from CSC, DBM, DILG, NEDA and the Sectoral Committee Chairpersons. The SCMDA Chairperson shall serve as the TWG Lead and NEDA as the Co-Lead.

The SCMDA Secretariat from NEDA Region IV-A shall be the clearing grounds for nominations of Lingkod RDC and Serbisyo Parangal awards. The TWG shall review and approve the Secretariat's recommendations through a meeting or referendum. After the evaluation and selection process, the TWG shall endorse the nominees to the SCMDA for subsequent endorsement to the RDC for its approval.

VII. EFFECTIVITY

The revised RDC-RCA system shall be adopted upon approval of the RDC.

Annex A. Serbisyo Parangal ng CALABARZON Award

Eligibility Criteria i.

The Serbisyo Parangal ng CALABARZON Award nominees must meet the following criteria:

- The nominee/s (individual or organization) must be a resident of CALABARZON region or a member of the CALABARZON RDC or its committees. Organizations outside the RDC must have its operations within the region;
- The nominee must have an outstanding and exemplary contribution to the socio-economic development of the region following the CALABARZON RDP:
- Previous awardees are ineligible for nomination during the RDP period in which they were previously awarded. However, they may be nominated in subsequent RDP periods for different initiatives or activities.
- Nominees from the RDC or its committees must be nominated by fellow RDC members or RDC committee members. Non-RDC members, on the other hand, may be nominated by any individual or group external to the organization the nominee represents.

ii. General Guidelines

- Submission of more than one nomination is not allowed;
- All required information must be provided to the secretariat;
- Nomination form must be duly signed with consent from the nominee;
- If the initiative by an individual is implemented through an organization, the nominee must be the organization.

Selection Criteria and Scoring iii.

Nominees to the Serbisyo Parangal ng CALABARZON Award will be evaluated based on four selection criteria, as follows:

Area of Coverage (40 points)

This refers to the geographical scope of the initiative where the program or project is implemented by the individual or organization, while also considering the percentage of beneficiaries reached by the nominee's enrolled initiatives.

Relevance (30 points)

This refers to the extent to which the contribution or act effectively addresses the development challenges of the region. The contribution or act can be anything that aims to improve the development of the region, such as a policy, a program or project. The effectiveness of such contribution or action can be measured by the number of outcomes/strategies in the Regional Development Plan supported by the project/activity and the number of project objectives achieved.

Sustainability (20 points)

This refers to the level of effort given by the nominees to ensure that their initiatives to provide benefits or to address development challenges continues even beyond their term. Sustainability ensures that benefits are not short-lived and that resources are effectively utilized. With that, the sustainability criterion is measured through the no. of years of project implementation and extent of institutionalization.

Innovation (10 points)

This refers to the introduction of new and creative ideas in an act or project. It involves using new, unique, and/or streamlined technologies, approaches and methodologies to address development challenges in the region. Moreover, it also involves adopting new technology/practices in the region.
